ITEM 4 – ADVISORY BUSINESS

A. Started in 1991, Financially Speaking, Inc. employs a diversely talented team striving to ensure that you receive the personal service and professional recommendations needed to achieve your unique financial objectives. Philip H. Luccock leads the organization as the principal owner, basing the direction of the company on the knowledge that money is personal; we work hard to build a trusting relationship with you and to understand your inherent goals, needs and risk tolerance.

B. Financially Speaking, Inc. goes the extra mile to provide superior service to all of our clients and this commitment to excellence has allowed us to grow our business largely from referrals. The main advisory services we offer to our clients include:

- Retirement Planning: We help individuals and businesses select and establish the retirement plan that best fits their goals and needs. The options we typically explore include SEP, Simple, Traditional and Roth IRAs, i401K, and Profit Sharing. We employ a variety of analytical tools and techniques to help you monitor your progress toward achieving your retirement goals.
- Investment Management: Our unique approach to investment management involves daily monitoring of your portfolios and incorporates no-load/no-transaction-fee mutual funds offered by Charles Schwab. We take a dynamic asset allocation approach to investing, which enables our investment strategy to change with market conditions.
- Education Planning: We explore a variety of options to help you fund your children's education. This may include 529 Plans, custodial accounts, and other parental investing plans.
- Estate Planning: We assist you in identifying potential estate planning issues and establishing a plan for the most efficient management of your estate. Wills and trusts serve as valuable tools to reduce taxes and preserve wealth for family members. We work with your estate planning attorney to ensure that trusts, powers of attorney, wills, and other legal documents are congruent with your financial and life goals.
- Tax Planning: We work with you and your tax preparer to minimize tax burden. Planning early in the year can often reduce taxes. We also simplify and reduce the administrative cost and difficulty of tax preparation by providing detailed realized gain and loss information.
- Insurance Evaluation: We do not sell insurance, but we can review your coverage to determine if there are any insurance gaps or unnecessary coverage. We also evaluate life, health, disability, long-term care, as well as property and casualty insurance.

- Succession/Transition Planning: Succession planning is an essential task for business owners. Working with attorneys and investment bankers, we facilitate business transitions and help establish succession plans for future transfer of ownership.
- Compensation Strategies: Business owners are often challenged by the task of acquiring and retaining valuable employees. We assess the needs and resources of businesses and recommend the best mix of compensation alternatives to acquire and retain key employees.

C. We work hard to build a trusting relationship with each client and to understand their inherent goals, needs and risk tolerance. Once a client's financial profile is established, we tailor a financial plan for each client's distinctive set of circumstances and then actively manage their portfolio over time to help ensure that their goals are met. Clients may impose restrictions on investing in certain types of securities if they so choose.

D. We do not participate in wrap fee programs.

E. We manage $158,077,119.00 on a discretionary basis and $3,940,169.00 on a non-discretionary basis as of March 7, 2024.

ITEM 5 – FEES AND COMPENSATION

A. Financially Speaking, Inc. services are fee-only, and we do not sell anything on a commission basis. This approach avoids any potential for biased advice or conflict of interest as we assist you in meeting your goals. The initial consultation is free of charge.

Upon entering into a contractual relationship, the client is quoted an annual fee based on the complexity of services rendered. That fee is calculated upon one or more of the following schedules:

Financial Planning & Investment Advisory Services:

- A. For ongoing financial and investment advisory services: Unless negotiated otherwise, and agreed upon in the Engagement Letter, the annual fee is 1% of assets under management. The fee is billed quarterly in advance, as calculated from the portfolio value at close of business on the last day of the prior quarter.
 - i. Because fees are billed in advance, we prorate for deposits and withdrawals that occur during the previous quarter if they adjust the bill by more than $10. Additionally, should we or you choose to terminate our relationship, we refund your fees to the date of termination.
 - ii. Fees may be re-negotiated in the future depending on scope of services rendered and portfolio value. A change to the fee percentage will be agreed upon and signed off on in a new Engagement Letter by both Financially Speaking and the Client before said fee is implemented.
- B. Client/Planner relationships lasting less than one year are discouraged. If we agree to occasional consultations, the hourly fee rate can be negotiated at that time.
- C. Financial Planning: We do not charge a separate fee for financial planning services for clients with assets under management. This includes the preparation of personalized financial plans, investment strategies, retirement planning, and any other related financial advisory services. For clients without assets under management, we charge an hourly rate of $250/hour for financial planning services.

B. Payment of Fees: The management fees for assets held at Charles Schwab and Nationwide are payable quarterly in advance, prorated for the previous quarter. If you have accounts at Charles Schwab and Nationwide, then you may choose to either have fees deducted from your investment account(s) or pay fees by check. The payment schedule is arranged for your convenience and actual accrued charges for services rendered will become immediately due and payable if the agreement is prematurely terminated.

C. Clients who invest in mutual funds pay their respective share of each mutual fund's management, administrative and transaction expenses. These expenses are internal to each mutual fund and not a separate charge to the client. We attempt to avoid most trading fees with no-load/no-transaction-fee mutual funds.

ITEM 6 – PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

In order to avoid a conflict of interest, Financially Speaking, Inc. and its employees do not accept performance-based fees (such as a share of capital gains or capital appreciation on a client's account). For our fee schedule, please see Item 5.

ITEM 7 – TYPES OF CLIENTS

Financially Speaking, Inc. typically provides investment advice to individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and business entities.

While there is no absolute minimum dollar value of assets or other condition for starting or maintaining an account, full client status is usually appropriate for individuals with annual incomes of $125,000 or more and/or net worth of $500,000 or more, and for families with annual income(s) of $250,000 or more and/or net worth of $1,000,000 or more.

ITEM 8 – METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

A. Financially Speaking, Inc. employs an “active trading strategy.” Tax minimization strategies are usually secondary to wealth preservation and profit maximization. We do diversify, buy, and rebalance some accounts on an annual basis. The tools we use in our buy/sell discipline include but are not limited to macro-economics, fundamental analysis, and technical analysis. We seek to avoid significant losses by selling before a major market downturn. We also seek to gain profits by identifying market segments that are outperforming the overall U.S. equity markets. There are no guarantees that we will be successful in avoiding all market declines or capturing market upturns. We will not hold a diversified portfolio through a market downturn with the expectation that you will get your investment returned within your lifetime; we believe in avoiding large losses if possible. We also may use inverse or short index mutual funds to reduce portfolio risk and minimize taxable events. Investing in securities involves the risk of loss that clients must be able to bear.

As a fiduciary, our client's best interest is our first priority. We may sell to avoid losses or buy to capture profits. We are not compensated for trading more frequently. We are solely compensated from retainers paid by our clients (See Item 5A).

B. We employ several models to attempt to match the level of risk in your financial plan or investment plan with our best understanding of the current market risks. We attempt to mitigate market risk through these dynamic asset allocation models, which may change frequently, along with our assessment of the markets and our buy/sell discipline. We attempt to avoid most trading fees with no-load/no-transaction-fee mutual funds. As a secondary goal, we take into account tax consequences before we sell an investment. We may coordinate with you and/or your tax advisor before selling. Deposits and withdrawals can affect account performance.

C. We are not limited to investing in any particular type of security.

ITEM 9 – DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Financially Speaking, Inc. has not been involved in any legal or disciplinary events.

ITEM 10 – OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

A. Financially Speaking, Inc. is an independent Registered Investment Advisor, is not a broker-dealer and has not applied to register as such. Also, none of our employees are representatives of broker-dealers, nor have they applied to register as such.

B. No Financially Speaking, Inc. employees are registered, or have applied to register as futures commission merchants, commodity pool operators, commodity trading advisors, or associated persons of such entities.

C. Financially Speaking, Inc. and its employees do not have relationships that might create a conflict of interest with any of the following entities:

- broker-dealers, municipal securities dealers, or government securities dealers or brokers
- investment companies or other pooled investment vehicles (including mutual funds, closed-end investment companies, unit investment trusts, private investment companies or “hedge funds,” and offshore funds)
- other investment advisers or financial planners
- futures commission merchants, commodity pool operators, or commodity trading advisors
- banking or thrift institutions
- accountants or accounting firms
- lawyers or law firms
- insurance companies or agencies
- pension consultants
- real estate brokers or dealers
- sponsors or syndicators of limited partnerships

D. Financially Speaking, Inc. and its employees do not receive compensation from any of the advisors we may recommend (i.e., CPAs, attorneys, etc.). We do not have conflicts of interest in relation to advisors we may recommend.

ITEM 11 – CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS, AND PERSONAL TRADING

Financially Speaking, Inc. and its employees and subcontractors operate within a strict Code of Ethics, adopted pursuant to SEC Rule 204A-1. This Code of Ethics specifies that all employees and subcontractors must place your interests ahead of their own or the firm's investment interests, comply with federal securities laws, and avoid any actual or perceived conflict of interest in personal trading. Employees and subcontractors must also agree to keep all of your information confidential and only disclose it as necessary to serve your interests, and as permitted by law. We can provide a copy of our Code of Ethics to you upon request. In addition to SEC Rule 204A-1, Financially Speaking, Inc. and its employees also comply with the Department of Labor's Prohibited Transaction Exemption 2020-02, which means that when we provide investment advice to you regarding your retirement plan account or individual retirement account, we are fiduciaries within the meaning of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act and/or the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable. The way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests, so we operate under a special rule that requires us to act in your best interests and not put our interests ahead of yours. Under this special rule's provisions, we must:

- Meet a professional standard of care when making investment recommendations (give prudent advice);
- Never put our financial interests ahead of yours when making recommendations (give loyal advice);
- Avoid misleading statements about conflicts of interest, fees, and investments;
- Follow policies and procedures designed to ensure that we give advice that is in your best interest;
- Charge no more than is reasonable for our services; and
- Give you basic information about conflicts of interest.

For example, when advising a client on rolling over a retirement plan or existing IRA to an IRA under our management, a conflict of interest may arise as we stand to profit from that recommendation if the plan or IRA is transferred under our management. However, our fiduciary duty ensures that we will only make that recommendation if it is in the best interest of the client.

We do not recommend, buy or sell securities in which Financially Speaking, Inc. or any related person has a material financial interest, thereby avoiding a conflict of interest. Financially Speaking, Inc. and/or related persons do, on occasion, invest in the same securities recommended to clients, but such investments must be approved by the Chief Compliance Officer, and investment statements are reviewed by the Chief Compliance Officer for potential conflicts of interest. If the Chief Compliance Officer identifies a conflict of interest, then disciplinary action or termination may ensue.

ITEM 12 – BROKERAGE PRACTICES

A. Financially Speaking, Inc. is independently owned and operated and is not affiliated with any broker-dealer or custodian. We recommend opening accounts with certain custodians to minimize your transaction costs and for efficient execution of orders. Financially Speaking, Inc. does not maintain custody of your assets, except that under government regulations we are deemed to have custody of your assets if you authorize us to instruct your custodian to deduct our advisory fees directly from your account. Your assets must be maintained in an account at a “qualified custodian,” generally a broker-dealer or a bank. We recommend that you establish brokerage accounts with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (Schwab), and annuities at Nationwide to maintain custody of your assets, and to effect trades for your accounts. These custodians are registered broker-dealers and Members SIPC. Schwab and Nationwide provide Financially Speaking, Inc. with access to institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to retail investors. Schwab services include brokerage, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment. Nationwide provides custodial services for mutual funds.

➤ How We Select Broker-Dealers/Custodians

Schwab will hold your assets in a brokerage account and buy or sell securities when we or you instruct them to. We look for custodians who will hold your assets and execute transactions on terms that are, overall, most advantageous when compared to other available providers and their services. We consider a wide range of factors, including:

- Combination of transaction execution services and asset custody services
- Capability to execute, clear, and settle trades
- Breadth of available investment products (i.e., stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, etc.)
- Quality of services
- Competitiveness of the price of those services (i.e., commission rates, margin rates, and other fees, etc.), and willingness to negotiate prices
- Reputation, financial strength, and stability
- Prior service to us and our clients

➤ Your Brokerage and Custody Costs

Schwab does not charge you separately for custody services but may be compensated by charging a minimal transaction fee on trades for certain mutual funds, ETFs and stocks. Whenever possible, we negotiate the lowest fees from Schwab.

➤ Products and Services Available to Us from Custodians

Schwab and Nationwide are businesses serving independent investment advisory firms like ours. They provide us and our clients with access to institutional brokerage trading, custody, reporting, and related services—many of which are not typically available to retail customers. They also provide us support services. Some of those services help us manage or administer your accounts, while others help us manage and grow our business. Their support services generally are available on an unsolicited basis at no charge to us. Following is a more detailed description of Schwab and Nationwide support services:

- Services that Benefit You

These custodians' brokerage services include access to a broad range of investment products, execution of securities transactions, and custody of client assets. The investment products available include some to which we might not otherwise have access or that would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment by our clients.

- Services That May Not Directly Benefit You

These custodians make available to us other products and services that benefit us but may not directly benefit you or your account(s). These products and services do, however, assist us in managing and administering your account(s). This includes investment research. We may use this research to service all or a substantial number of our clients' accounts, wherever they are held. Software and other technologies are made available that:

- Provide access to client account data
- Facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts
- Provide pricing and other market data
- Facilitate payment of our fees from our clients' accounts
- Assist with back office function, recordkeeping, and client reporting

- Services That Generally Benefit Only Us

Other services that help us manage and further develop our business include: educational conferences and events, consulting on technology, compliance, legal, and business needs, and publications and conferences on practice management and business succession. Some of these services are provided directly by the custodians and others may be provided by third-party vendors. All or a portion of the fees may be paid by the custodians.

- Research and Other Soft Dollar Benefits: We do not receive research or other soft dollar benefits in connection with purchases or sales of securities, thus eliminating the associated conflict of interest.

- Brokerage for Client Referrals: We do not receive any client referrals from broker-dealers, custodians or third parties, and therefore do not take client referrals into account when selecting or recommending broker-dealers/custodians.
- Directed Brokerage: We do not direct trades to any brokerage other than Schwab.

B. We do not pool or aggregate the purchase or sale of securities for client accounts.

ITEM 13 – REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

A. Initially, we review your accounts for asset allocation, industry and media diversification, risk levels, and suitability. Thereafter, we review your accounts on a quarterly basis, and much more frequently if market conditions so warrant. Stop-loss orders and pre-established computer-monitored price targets may be employed, particularly during volatile market periods. We also evaluate your investment model(s) strategically on a weekly basis and more frequently, as needed. Portfolio reviews are conducted by Philip H. Luccock, Stacy Myers, and/or Brittany Fones.

B. It is our policy to meet with you on an annual basis, and more frequently at your request, to review all managed accounts, including current investments/models, financial plan (if applicable), account performance, account beneficiaries, and discuss any necessary changes. Stacy Myers, Principal, and/or Philip H. Luccock, President, conduct these reviews.

C. We strongly urge all investment advisory clients to utilize one or more individual accounts offered by custodians (e.g., Charles Schwab) for securities safekeeping and efficiency of investment transactions. In addition to comprehensive monthly statements from the custodian (e.g., Charles Schwab), you will receive quarterly performance reports from Financially Speaking, Inc. We generate these reports using our portfolio management software (i.e., PortfolioCenter).

ITEM 14 – CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

A. In connection with our consulting services, our only compensation is from our clients' retainer fees. Please see Item 5A for more information.

B. Neither Financially Speaking, Inc. nor any related persons directly or indirectly compensates any outside party for client referrals. Likewise, Financially Speaking, Inc. does not receive any compensation from outside parties for client referrals.

ITEM 15 – CUSTODY

We do not have custody of client funds or securities. A qualified custodian provides periodic statements, which you should review carefully. We also send you quarterly performance reports, and we urge you to compare these to statements from your custodian, reporting discrepancies to us immediately.

ITEM 16 – INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Financially Speaking, Inc., if you grant limited power of attorney, accepts discretionary authority to manage securities accounts on your behalf. You can place limitations on our authority. As an example, clients sometimes make requests such as: that a minimum cash balance be maintained, that certain holdings are not sold, or that certain funds not be purchased.

ITEM 17 – VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

It is Financially Speaking, Inc.'s custom and practice not to vote client securities.

ITEM 18 – FINANCIAL INFORMATION

A. Please see Item 5, Fees and Compensation, for information on our billing procedures. We do not require or solicit prepayment of more than $1,200.00 in fees per client, six months or more in advance.

B. We maintain a reserve of at least $100,000.00, in addition to our working capital, which we replenish quarterly. This reserve allows us to meet any contractual commitments to clients, which might include reimbursement of fees paid in advance.

C. We have not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time in the past ten years.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
